located in the Marina District of Atlantic City, New Jersey

Sponsorship Opportunities Are Available

For over 80 years, the Middle Atlantic States Correctional Association (MASCA) has held correctional/criminal justice training conferences featuring excellent workshop presenters who are nationally and regionally known. Our conference presents exhibitors with an excellent opportunity to network across disciplines, and state and county borders. MASCA's Members represent the Middle Atlantic States spanning from Connecticut through to Washington, D.C.

Join us as we reengage with our membership, and navigate the future of corrections and community corrections!

MASCA Exhibitor Information:

The conference exhibitor space is located in the main ballroom, where much of the activity will occur, including the plenary sessions, commissioner's roundtable, awards ceremonies, raffles, meals, and snack breaks.

Exhibitors may set up Tuesday afternoon, prior to the President's Reception, or early Wednesday morning during registration.

Conference activity will occur in the exhibit hall all day Wednesday, May 25th, & Thursday, May 26th. Exhibitors may break down at the close of business on Thursday.

Exact time frames, audio visual information, and logistics will be available prior to the conference. Harrah's Resort is located in the beautiful Marina District of Atlantic City.
